Manila, Philippines — Manulife Philippines recently inaugurated its new Cebu 2Quad office, one of 47 branches of the Company in the country, to further strengthen its agency force's commitment to providing life and health protection and financially securing the future of more Cebuanos.

Currently, Manulife's hub in the Visayas has 23 agents belonging to the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT), a global and independent association of the world's leading life insurance and financial services professionals. The hub will house Manulife's growing agency force in Cebu, now with more than 200 agency leaders and financial advisors.

"As more Filipinos prioritize their health and future, Manulife empowers its agency force with comprehensive training and education programs, innovative digitized tools, mentorship programs, and collaboration opportunities with fellow financial advisors, enabling them to serve and help more Filipinos make well-informed decisions related to finance and health coverage," said Rahul Hora, President and CEO, Manulife Philippines. "With our expanding presence in Cebu and the Visayas region, we look forward to financially protect more Filipino families and make their every day better."

Along with Hora, also present during the inauguration were Sailesh Nalinakshan, Manulife Philippines Head of Agency Strategy and Support; Maya Lee, Manulife Philippines Chief Operations Officer; Maiko Diaz de Rivera, Head of Distribution Operations; the Honorable Rey Gealon, City Councilor of the City of Cebu, and Visayas-based Manulife Agency Leaders and Sales Management Team.
