Manulife inks partnership with Forticare Health Systems as exclusive group life insurance provider in Forticare HMO products

Manila, Philippines — Manulife Philippines, the local arm of leading global financial services provider Manulife, recently partnered with Forticare Health Systems International, Inc., one of the country’s leading health maintenance organizations (HMO), to become its sole provider of group life insurance bundled with Forticare’s existing HMO products.

Through this collaboration, Forticare customers can get additional benefits to their current healthcare plans, including basic life insurance coverage, total and permanent disability, critical illness rider, hospital income, terminal illness, and family assistance.

“At Manulife, we aim to enhance every Filipino’s awareness of the importance of health protection and financial security so they can live every day better. Our partnership with Forticare not only empowers more Filipinos to proactively monitor and manage their health and well-being better so they can enjoy life to the fullest, but also strengthens their resources so they are not financially burdened in case of illness or health emergencies,” said Rahul Hora, President and CEO, Manulife Philippines.

“We are glad to partner with Manulife, whose mission is aligned with our commitment to provide excellent healthcare services to more Filipinos and their loved ones so they can live without worry or fear because they have strong health protection. As our journey keeps on, we are confident that we can generate greater awareness of the value of staying protected so more Filipinos can be prepared for the unexpected,” said Patrick Joseph Nadal, President, Forticare.
