Manila, Philippines — The domestic arm of global financial services provider Manulife recently inaugurated its newest agency branch in Mindanao, located at Aeon Towers, J.P Laurel, Bajada, Davao City. The opening of the company’s biggest branch in Davao province and in Mindanao highlights its strong commitment to providing accessible, flexible, and comprehensive insurance solutions to Filipinos in the region.

Rahul Hora, President and Chief Executive Officer, Manulife Philippines, expressed excitement about the company’s expansion in Davao City. “Our commitment is stronger than ever to financially protect more Filipinos in Mindanao through our innovative insurance and investment solutions that aim to address our customers’ most pressing needs, especially when it comes to health and life protection, retirement planning, and investments. It will be much easier and more convenient for Davaoeños to consult with our empowered Manulife financial advisors as the new branch is now located at the heart of the city.”

Present during the opening ceremony were Rahul Hora, President and CEO, Manulife Philippines; Sailesh Nalinakshan, Chief Agency Officer, Manulife Philippines; Maiko Diaz De

Rivera, Head of Distribution Operations, Manulife Philippines; JF Salazar, National Agency Sales Head, Manulife Philippines; and Manulife financial advisors and agency leaders.
