Manulife Philippines Opens New Agency Office in Makati City

MANILA, Philippines – Manulife Philippines, the local arm of leading international financial services provider Manulife, recently opened its newest agency office on the 10th floor of Ayala North Exchange Tower 1 in Makati City to accommodate its growing agency sales force. Shown in the photo are Chief Agency Officer Sailesh Nalinakshan (3rd from left), National Agency Sales Head Ian Mar Dayot (7th from left), and President and Chief Executive Officer Rahul Hora (rightmost), along with Manulife financial advisors and agency leaders.

“The opening of our Ayala North Exchange office marks an exciting milestone for Manulife Philippines. This new space reflects our commitment to empowering our growing agency force and strengthening our presence in Makati and in the National Capital Region, so we can continue helping more Filipino families secure a better future,” said Hora. “By investing in modern, collaborative environments, we enable our financial advisors and agency leaders to deliver exceptional service and solutions—helping make decisions easier and lives better for our customers in the Philippines.”
